

North, Torrance, Narbonne High B of A Awards Winners Selected

Winners in this area in the first round of Bank of America's state-wide Achievement Awards program for high school seniors were announced this week.

For outstanding scholarship, leadership and promise of future service to society, all will receive certificates of achievement, and some will get additional honors and a chance at the $32,100 in cash awards the bank will present to Southern California students.

Awards cover practically all high school subjects: vocational arts, liberal arts, fine arts and science and mathematics.

SOME 200 Southern California students will receive certificates; 740 will get (gold) trophies, and 252 will be cash awards. There will be 12 awards of $1,000, and others ranging down to a large group of $25 awards.

Most of the 740 trophy winners will go to the zone competitions to compete against other schools in this area in April, appearing before a judging panel of civic leaders who will listen to them in group discussions of subjects related to their studies. The judges add their scores to the students' scholarship and activity records and name the winners.

IN THE ZONE competition, all third place winners will receive $25 cash awards; second place winners, $50, and all first place winners will go to the finals in May, where they will receive not less than $100 and may win up to $1,000.

To operate such a large program, the bank divides the state into five geographical divisions, with identical awards in each division. The state-wide total in cash awards will set a new high mark this year—$58,300 in all.

Enthusiastic Audience Greet Performance of Bize's 'Carmen'

Bize's Carmen presented last Sunday afternoon by the South Bay-Torrance Civic Symphony was the first opera in concert form to be presented in the South Bay. An enthusiastic audience applauded the performance with fine appreciation for the music and for the outstanding interpretation given by the cast under the direction of Elyse Aehele.

Preceding the opera, symphony president Jan Darian introduced Rosemary De Camp, who gave a word of welcome and led the salute to the flag. From the opening strains of the prelude to the exciting finale, the orchestra had the task of setting the mood and the background for a production which depended not on scenery or dramatic movement for its success, but on the performance of the music.

The well-balanced orchestra, with excellent players in every section, played with verve and spontaneity and with fine dramatic contrast. Praise is due them for the excellent accompaniments played for the soloists and chorus, due especially to the fine musical taste shown by the conductor.

Soloists were of professional caliber and gave understanding characterizations. Marilyn Niska as Carmen showed real dramatic ability and a beautiful voice. The exacting role of Carmen, which demands a mezzo quality and great range should become one of her most successful roles. She has a rich quality in her lower register and brilliant top tones. Her flair for the role brought her applause especially in the Habenera.

Lyle Heck as Escamillo, displayed his rich baritone in the Toreador song, singing with authority and power and reaching an exciting climax. The brilliant voice of the young tenor, Eduardo Angulo, was effective in the duet with Carmen but in the "Flower Song" the richness and pathos of his voice were even more evident.

As "Micaela," Patricia Baker received a well-earned ovation. Her lovely lyric soprano soared to ethereal heights and her expressive interpretation touched her listeners. Francis Russell as Mercedes and Jill Rudick, as Frasquita displayed flexible voices of excellent quality.

A surprisingly good children's chorus of 60 voices directed by Dan F. Kammerer, sang with good rhythm and pitch as if they enjoyed it immensely.

Torrance Youths at Ministry Conference

Aaron F. Benson of 18513 Amie Ave. and David Russ of 3450 Redondo Beach Blvd. were among approximately 100 Baptist college age students invited to attend the annual American Baptist Conference on the Ministry in Covina last week end. Dr. Lynn Leavenworth, director of theological education for the American Baptist Convention, was keynote speaker at the conference opening.

conducted by Paul Sunia, gave beautiful support in the Toreador song and was heard in the fast-moving finale together with the whole cast in a rousing performance of the Toreador Chorus.

Miquita, star of screen and concert, gave a characteristic Spanish dance in lovely costume, enhanced by her natural grace and beauty, with striking rhythmic sweep which won her an encore. Unfortunately she danced to a poor recording which was the only jarring note in the afternoon's performance.

Much praise is due a community concert which includes 150 instrumentalists and singers. A special praise is due the conductor, Elyse Aehele, whose vision made possible such a production, and to the performers for their efforts in contributing a program of such high standards.

Torrance Teachers Trail On State Salary Scale

Torrance teachers are way behind the prevailing state wage scale, according to budget figures received by the Board of Education Tuesday night.

The average Torrance teacher's salary is $208, as compared with the state's $251 average. Superintendent J. H. Hull attributes the discrepancy in part to the fact that many of the local teachers are newer and younger than those in many of the state's older districts.

Claiming that average salary costs will rise as teachers here advance in the local scale and as schools get older, Hull stated that this budget figure will also be boosted as Torrance places increasing emphasis on specialized courses such as math, science, vocational training, audio-visual aids, and programs for brighter students.

Other budget figures released at Tuesday's meeting revealed that the school district's total expenses per pupil (which included 8 other items in addition to teachers' salaries) also run way below the state average.

According to the report, Torrance spends $223.21 per pupil as compared with the state average of $381.03.

Torrance was above the state in two of the 12 categories—transportation of pupils and instructional supplies. Other items which figured in the average pupil cost are: operation of plants, administration, non-teaching salaries, auxiliary services, plant maintenance, and fixed charges.
